Germans Renew Hammering, But Allied Forces Come Back With General Offensive Movement, and Already Have Made Sharp Advances, Although Invaders Push Forward At Two Points.

RUSSIAN FRENCH AND BRITISH AMBASSADORS PREPARING TO LEAVE THE OTTOMAN EMPIRE

Germans Said to Have Left Ostend and Lille—Russia is Blamed by Germany for Turk's Entry Into Fray—German Generals Lead Turks, and German Vessels Under Turkish Flag Are Said to Have Bombarded City—U. S. Makes Formal Protest to England.

London, October 31.—The impression created here by the latest news is that a general advance of the allied forces in France and Belgium has been ordered, so main interest again is centered in the cockpit covering three or four miles from the seaboard. The general trend of the movements of both the German and the allied armies is, for the moment, according to both British and French official statements, in a northerly direction and northeasterly direction, but that Germany has resumed her hammer blows with greater energy than ever is attested by the British official information bureau.

In spite of these stubborn counter strokes it is claimed that all the movements of the allied forces are in a forward direction towards the line still held by Germans in force and stretching from Bruges to Thourout, Roulers, Iseghem and Courtray. Whether from Bruges this line extends to Ostend or Zeebrugge is in doubt, there being, up to the present, no official confirmation of the reported reoccupation of Ostend by the allies.

Definite confirmation of the reported evacuation of Lille by the Germans is also lacking. The battle in the vicinity of Ypres is of a most stubborn character and the slaughter is so great that central West Flanders has become one enormous hospital. The allied advance in this quarter is pushing near Roulers, which is occupied by the Germans after undergoing great damage each time it changed hands.

Rheims again has become the target of Teutonic guns and activities on the heights of the Meuse in the Woivre district indicate further efforts on the part of the Germans to strengthen their hold on the St. Mihiel district.

In the east the battle of millions continues without definite results. In Berlin it is stated that it was in reality Russia which started the war. The increased confidence of the French is indicated in the unofficial announcement in Paris that the French government will return to that city from Bordeaux on November 20th.

Action of the British government in holding up American vessels on the high seas led today to a formal protest from Washington.

London, October 31.—No declaration of war has yet been made by either Turkey or Russia and the suggestion is made from various sources that the German commander of the cruisers Goeben and Breslau, may have forced the situation without the authority of the Turkish government, owing to Germany's chagrin at the defeat on the Vistula.

ALLIES' MINISTERS LEAVING TURKEY

By Associated Press.

Washington, October 31.—Word reached the state department today that diplomatic representatives of the allies were making preparations to leave Constantinople. Officials declined to reveal the source of their information, but it was understood that already the United States has been asked to take over the affairs of at least one of the legations at the Turkish capital.

CAPTURE GERMAN BOATS

By Associated Press.

London, October 31.—A dispatch to the Post from Sydney, New South Wales, says it is reported that the German cruisers, Schanhorst and the Gneisenau, have been captured as a result of the failure of their coal supply. There is no official confirmation of the report to be had here.

RUSSIANS ADVANCE

By Associated Press.

Washington, October 31.—Stubborn fighting continues on the East Prussian frontier between the Russians and Germans, and the Austrians suffered heavy losses near Tarnow on October 29 at the hands of the Russians, who took 1,000 prisoners, according to a Russian foreign office dispatch received today at the Russian embassy.

74,000 PRISONERS

By Associated Press.

London, October 31.—A Vienna dispatch says the total number of prisoners interned in Austria-Hungary on October 28 was 649 officers and 73,179 men not including the prisoners taken in the battles last week.

ITALY ACTIVE

By Associated Press.

London, October 31.—A dispatch from Rome says:

"A semi-official note has been issued stating that the island of Saffo was occupied yesterday by the Italian navy, who disembarked one battery and a company of infantry.

"The ownership of this island, which commands the entrance to the harbor of Avlona, Albania, has long been a matter of dispute between Greece and Albania."

50 MORE SAVED

By Associated Press.

Whitby, England, via London, October 31.—Fifty more men were saved this morning from the wreck of the British hospital ship Rohilla, which ran on the rocks of Yorkshire coast near here early yesterday.

SAYS ITALY MUST ACT

By Associated Press.

Rome, October 31.—A newspaper, the organ of the Nationalist party, which has always urged the participation of Italy in the European conflict, says that the Italian inaction after the attitude of Turkey would be simply absurd blindness.

"For Italy," the paper continues, "it is now no more a question of the European conflict, but a conflict eminently Mediterranean. It is no more a question of solving the Adriatic problem but the Mediterranean problem, which comprises the whole national existence."

OIL CONCERNS INDICTED

By Associated Press.

Jersey City, N. J., October 31.—It was reported here today that criminal indictments had been voted by the Hudson County Grand Jury against the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and the Gulf Refining Company, which have been engaged in a rate war on gasoline in Hudson and Essex counties within the past few months.

APPEAL TAKEN

By Associated Press.

Columbus, O., October 31.—The Chillicothe Gas Light and Water Co. today appealed to the Supreme Court from the decision of the state public utilities commission fixing rates in Chillicothe.

17 HURT IN TRAIN WRECK

By Associated Press.

Binghamton, N. Y., October 31.—Seventeen persons were hurt today in the wreck of train No. 32 on the Lakawana railroad, which was thrown off an embankment a mile west of Alford, Pa., this morning. Part of the train of five cars rolled down a 30-foot incline into a creek.

WARSHIPS ACTED WITHOUT AUTHORITY

Washington, October 31.—

The Turkish minister of finance informed the French ambassador at Constantinople yesterday that the raid of the Turkish warships on Russian seaports took place without the knowledge of the Ottoman government and presumably under the influence of German officers and crew. This information was conveyed in a dispatch today from Ambassador Morgenthau to the American government.

Mr. Morgenthau added that the Russian ambassador received instructions at 3 a. m. yesterday to demand his passport and make an effort to see the grand vizier, who pleaded illness and did not receive him. The Russian, French and British ambassadors, according to the same dispatch, are preparing to leave Constantinople together.

CHILDREN'S BRIGADE MAKES A HIT

The "Young Campaigners' Brigade," in charge of Mrs. Frank E. Haines, of Sugar Grove W. C. T. U., and several city teachers, pulled off a stunt not scheduled in the parade of yesterday. Learning that a delegation in the interest of "The Home Rule Amendment" enroute to Cincinnati, was passing through on the 6 o'clock B. & O. train, the young campaigners met the train and highly entertained the passengers with their songs, yells and waving banners.

Regardless of their different interests, the men of the delegation waved and cheered the children, one of them calling back, "You're all right."

MRS. CARMAN SMILES WITH JOY AFTER HER TRYING COURT ORDEAL

Mrs. Florence C. Carman smiled with joy when she was admitted to $25,000 bail after the jury had disagreed in her trial for the murder of Mrs. Louise Bailey in Dr. Carman's office. Mrs. Carman said she felt confident that she would be acquitted if tried again in December. She left for a week's rest on her husband's farm in New Jersey.

MAP SHOWING TERRITORY OF WORST FIGHTING SINCE CONFLICT BEGAN

The places underlined in this map were mentioned in the official statements from Paris as the points of the most severe fighting along the left wing. The Germans kept up violent attacks in the whole region which lies between the sea and La Bassée. They likewise show great activity in the region of the Arras and on the Somme to the north and south of the river.

OHIO LEADERS MAKE CONFLICTING CLAIMS

Columbus, O., October 31.—Expressions of optimism came from state headquarters of Democratic, Republican and Progressive parties today. Chairman Jones, of the Republicans, predicted victory for the entire state ticket of his party by a "large plurality." The same term was employed by Democratic chairman, William L. Findley, in forecasting the election of the Democratic ticket. For the Progressives, State Chairman Walter S. Brown, contented himself with the prediction "that the surprise of the election will be the large vote cast for the Progressive candidates."

Conflicting predictions concerning the fate of the prohibition and home rule amendments at the election Tuesday were issued from headquarters of the Anti-Saloon League and the Ohio Home Rule Association, the "wet" organization, today. Wayne B. Wheeler, superintendent of the Ohio Anti-Saloon League, declared the state will go dry by a "safe majority." Graham P. Hunt, speaking for the liquor interests, predicted the prohibition amendment would be defeated by a majority of 150,000 and that the amendment abolishing county saloon option would be adopted by 75,000 majority.

MISCHIEF MAKERS COURTING ARREST

The spectacle of a buggy dangling from the fire escape at Central school; of boxes, ladders, gates and the like scattered about in trees, on roofs and verandahs in various parts of the city, Saturday morning, bore mute testimony that the Halloween mischief makers, which the city had hoped to be rid of this year, were on job ahead of time Friday night and citizens who suffered at their pleasure are up in arms.

It is probable that these unscrupulous, or thoughtless, revelers hoped to put one over on the police by getting in their work ahead of schedule. They will be closely watched tonight.

SPLENDID FLOWER ATTRACTS ATTENTION

Much attention has been attracted to the splendid new white chrysanthemums, conspicuous among the Buck floral exhibit of chrysanthemums in the window of Brown's drug store.

It is an English variety, known as the "William Staunton" and is one of the finest which has yet been grown among the wonderful showings now to be seen at the floral gardens.

EVERYBODY IN PARADE TONIGHT

The Halloween parade and carnival tonight, while under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., is open to all, and the public is invited to participate.

The parade forms on South Main street near the Pennsylvania station from 7:00 to 7:30 and moves promptly at 7:30.

VOTING PLACES IN UNION TOWNSHIP

The voting places in Union township this year will be in the usual offices at the Court House, the booth for the Eastern precinct being in the County Surveyor's office, and for the Western precinct in the County School Superintendent's office, notwithstanding reports to the contrary.

BREAKS ARM FOR SECOND TIME

Miss Helen Boswell had the misfortune to break her left arm in a fall on the steps of the Katz store Friday afternoon.

This is the second time that Miss Boswell has broken her left arm.

MASQUERADE

Victoria Temple Ladies of the Golden Eagle will give a masquerade Friday evening, November 6, at the I. O. O. F. Hall. Musical and literary program. Refreshments on sale. Prizes for the prettiest and the funniest masks. Admission 10c.

CONSOLIDATION OF SCHOOLS IN BLOOMINGBURG COMMUNITY

Said to Be Great Piece of Constructive School Work Done in Any Community This Year—Change Expected to Result in Increased Efficiency and Is Centralization of Some Eight Sub-Districts—Supt. Hughes Has Words of Praise for the New School System.

The magnitude of the work recently accomplished in the consolidation of some seven sub-districts with the Bloomingburg School district, has been one of the best pieces of work of its kind in the state of Ohio, and those who engineered the movement expect much good to result from the centralization, or consolidation of the numerous districts near Bloomingburg. Other similar movements, upon a smaller scale, will, in all probability be the outgrowth of the centralization at Bloomingburg.

Until Mr. Seelock of the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction declared that the recent consolidation of schools around Bloomingburg "is the greatest piece of constructive school work accomplished in Ohio this year", scarcely any notice was taken of this act of the County Board of Education.

Supt. Henry T. Hughes had the following to say when asked his views on the subject:

"The credit of working out this scheme for the education of the youth around Bloomingburg belongs to no individual but was the result of an interested and intelligent community being ready for the move, an up to date county and local board and an all pull together spirit. Of course the county and district superintendents did their parts but these officials can do nothing without the support of a constituency.

"Bloomingburg as a result of this consolidation will get a charter for a first grade school with sixty days and by next year when the seven schools will be hauled to that city the schools will be adjusted to the change."

When asked for his views on centralization, Mr. Hughes said: "I favor centralization where the law compels it and when schools are being centralized if the occasion demands that schools be consolidated that under other circumstances could continue as they are, take them in also."

"What do you think of the new law?" was asked.

In reply to the query of:

"The new law will prove its efficiency in one year and by the end of three years nobody will want to go back to any former law; it marks the beginning of a great epoch in Ohio educational affairs," he replied.

"Will there be any more centralization in District No. 2 this year?" was next asked.

"Yes, I think so," said Supt. Hughes.

"How much extra help will it require at Bloomingburg?" Mr. Hughes stated that probably three wagon drivers and one extra teacher. This will give the pupils better facilities for less money than was spent before; it will be an advantage all around and I think before long, with wise management by the Board, more territory will petition to be annexed to this district," he continued.

ANXIETY FELT FOR AMERICANS

Washington, Oct. 31.—Considerable anxiety is felt for Americans and American interests in Turkey. The battleships North Carolina and Tennessee are already in Turkish waters and people of the different nationalities were warned some time ago to come to the coast and be prepared for departure from the country.

ROOSEVELT REVEALS PLOT

New York, Oct. 31.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt in a speech here referred to the European war. He said, in part:

"We have all been shocked and horrified by the tragedy which has swept all civilized Europe into the gulf of ruin in the last three months. Every American citizen has been forced to realize it is the emptiest folly, as the world is at present, to rely on mere paper treaties. We've got to rely upon the officers and enlisted men of the army and navy of the United States. We've got to take our position in the world seriously; ready to do strict justice to every country; scorning to attack a nation weaker than ourselves; scorning to say wrong of any other nation; scorning to take any position that we can't back up, and ready to defend ourselves with our own right arm if the occasion warrants it."

MARINES MAY LAND

Washington, Oct. 31.—Another landing of American marines at Port au Prince, capital of Haiti, seems inevitable unless the impending downfall of the Zamor government and the accession of the revolutionist, Davilmar Theodore, is more orderly than is usually the case in upheavals of this character in the turbulent island republic.

The transport Hancock has arrived at Port au Prince with 800 marines on board and the battleship Kansas is on her way from Vera Cruz to Haiti.

The rebel leader, Theodore, is reported as marching on Port au Prince from a nearby town, while President Zamor and his brother Charles, who has been a powerful factor in the Haitian situation, are reported to be refugees. It is presumed at the state department that by this time the rebels are undoubtedly in possession of the capital, and grave fears are entertained as to the effect of their occupation of the city.

Home Rule makes wet all townships having no municipalities.

In reply to the query of:

"The new law will prove its efficiency in one year and by the end of three years nobody will want to go back to any former law; it marks the beginning of a great epoch in Ohio educational affairs," he replied.

"Will there be any more centralization in District No. 2 this year?" was next asked.

"Yes, I think so," said Supt. Hughes.

"How much extra help will it require at Bloomingburg?" Mr. Hughes stated that probably three wagon drivers and one extra teacher. This will give the pupils better facilities for less money than was spent before; it will be an advantage all around and I think before long, with wise management by the Board, more territory will petition to be annexed to this district," he continued.

ANXIETY FELT FOR AMERICANS

Washington, Oct. 31.—Considerable anxiety is felt for Americans and American interests in Turkey. The battleships North Carolina and Tennessee are already in Turkish waters and people of the different nationalities were warned some time ago to come to the coast and be prepared for departure from the country.

ROOSEVELT REVEALS PLOT

New York, Oct. 31.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt in a speech here referred to the European war. He said, in part:

"We have all been shocked and horrified by the tragedy which has swept all civilized Europe into the gulf of ruin in the last three months. Every American citizen has been forced to realize it is the emptiest folly, as the world is at present, to rely on mere paper treaties. We've got to rely upon the officers and enlisted men of the army and navy of the United States. We've got to take our position in the world seriously; ready to do strict justice to every country; scorning to attack a nation weaker than ourselves; scorning to say wrong of any other nation; scorning to take any position that we can't back up, and ready to defend ourselves with our own right arm if the occasion warrants it."

MARINES MAY LAND

Washington, Oct. 31.—Another landing of American marines at Port au Prince, capital of Haiti, seems inevitable unless the impending downfall of the Zamor government and the accession of the revolutionist, Davilmar Theodore, is more orderly than is usually the case in upheavals of this character in the turbulent island republic.

The transport Hancock has arrived at Port au Prince with 800 marines on board and the battleship Kansas is on her way from Vera Cruz to Haiti.

The rebel leader, Theodore, is reported as marching on Port au Prince from a nearby town, while President Zamor and his brother Charles, who has been a powerful factor in the Haitian situation, are reported to be refugees. It is presumed at the state department that by this time the rebels are undoubtedly in possession of the capital, and grave fears are entertained as to the effect of their occupation of the city.

Wet Townships In Fayette County

IF THE BREWERS' "HOME RULE" AMENDMENT WINS

Map of Fayette County

Home Rule makes wet all townships having no municipalities.

Judge Davis, thirteen years Supreme Court Judge, says:

"It would take away from the people power to prohibit the traffic either by legislation or local option, except municipal corporations or in a township containing municipal corporations."

It nullifies laws against Sunday selling, sale to minors, drunkards and similar laws.

Judge Henry, 7 years Circuit Judge, Cleveland:

"The proposed amendment prohibits statewide prohibition by legislative enactment; specifically destroys county option and nullifies all state laws prohibiting the sale of liquor to drunkards, minors, or other ways now prohibited by law."

The TOWNSHIPS shown in black will be WET after next Tuesday if the Brewers' Home Rule Amendment is not beaten And remember this: What will happen to the people who live in these townships when they have saloons and no police protection

The Work of Congress

Congress, after having been in session almost continuously since April, 1913, finally adjourned last Saturday.

The record of achievement in the way of legislative enactments, notwithstanding the fact that some of the minor platform promises have not been redeemed, is a creditable one.

Foremost, of course, in the record of Congress is the reduction of the tariff schedules by the enactment of the Underwood-Clark tariff law, the income tax enactment and the new currency law, which has not yet gone into effect.

Those three important laws were enacted in fulfillment of platform pledges and while the effect of their passage on the business of the nation is, as yet, more or less problematical, yet they are accepted by the people as an evidence of good faith at least.

In one notable instance, the majority members of Congress squarely violated the campaign pledge of their party. That was in the enactment of the law repealing the law which provided, in the use of the great Panama Canal, free tolls for American vessels.

The national administration in this repeal of the free tolls laws invited and is receiving a storm of condemnation from powerful interests which far overshadow the credit given for platform pledges redeemed by legislation enacted.

Even the opposition to a war tax measure did not equal that which existed and still exists to the repeal of the free tolls laws.

It is not likely that the present administration will hear the end of public censure on the tolls question for some time to come. It is quite probable, too, notwithstanding the fact that the majority of voters who understand the conditions approve of the action of Congress in repealing tolls exemption, that the constant dwelling upon a violation of the party platform by the administration will exercise an influence in the congressional elections Tuesday over the entire nation.

The great interests of the land had finally acquiesced in the reduction of the tariff and had concluded to peacefully submit to the inevitable, but the action of President Wilson and his supporters in Congress in repealing the free tolls legislation so rudely disturbed their dreams of security behind a platform promise that they have continued the opposition despite the fact that the law has already been enacted.

On the whole, however, the people are satisfied with the good faith exhibited by Congress in its legislative enactments.

As to the wisdom of the enactments, especially those relative to the tariff and the currency—that is another question which time only can answer. It is a source of satisfaction, at least, to the people to see that an era of redemption of campaign pledges has been inaugurated and the record of Congress furnishes proof of that fact.

The Wet And Dry Issue

In view of the wide publicity that has been given to both the "Home Rule" amendment and the State-Wide Prohibition amendment, to be voted on at the election next Tuesday, it is really remarkable that so many voters understand so little about what effect the adoption of either one of the proposed amendments would have.

The wets and the dries are able to agree upon the meaning of only a part of the proposed "Home Rule" amendment.

They both agree that, so far as any future prohibitory legislation is concerned, its enactment is prevented except by the adoption of another constitutional amendment, if the amendment now proposed by the wets is adopted by the voters.

As to what effect the adoption of the amendment would have on existing laws, the wets and dries disagree, the wets claiming that so far as existing regulatory legislation is concerned, it only repeals the county local option law.

The dries claim that the effect of adoption of the wet amendment would be much more sweeping and would render unenforceable the Sunday closing laws, the laws forbidding the sale to minors and drunkards, and that it would, immediately make all townships, containing no municipalities, wet.

Experts agree that there is, in the wording of the "Home Rule" amendment, either clumsily or adroitly framed, enough to warrant the contentions urged by the dry forces and prominent lawyers have expressed different opinions on the question. Certain it is that should the amendment which is being submitted by the wet forces be adopted, a decree of the Supreme court would be necessary to settle, finally, its real meaning. Contentions would spring up over night in every community like mushrooms.

As to the meaning of the State-Wide Prohibition amendment, submitted by the Anti-Saloon league and the Temperance element, there is no dispute between the opposing forces.

If adopted, the effect will be to make every man who, after May 2nd, 1916, manufactures, sells or imports into this state for sale, any beer, whiskey, wine or other intoxicating liquor, a criminal, provided during the eighteen months intervening between the time of the adoption of the amendment by the voters and the time when it goes into effect, the legislature of the state enacts the legislation necessary to make the enforcement of the amendment to the Constitution possible.

In that particular there are two vital points of difference between the two proposed amendments, which every voter should get and keep firmly fixed in his mind until after he has done all of his voting next Tuesday.

The adoption of the "Home Rule" amendment is all that is necessary to make it an effective working law in Ohio—its adoption would, automatically, the experts say, provide for enforcing its provisions without the aid of legislative enactment.

The adoption of the State-Wide Prohibition amendment must, to become effective, be reinforced by legislative enactment.

The amendment submitted by the liberal element is ambiguous and uncertain in its scope, while the amendment submitted by the Anti-Saloon league is clear cut in language and apparent in its effect.

The "Home Rule" amendment should be voted down for both moral and business reasons.

It is certain that it is far-reaching enough in its effect to destroy the county unit in the Ohio local option laws, and, granting that it has no wider scope, the adoption of the amendment would be the cause of constant agitation of the wet and dry issue, which designing men would keep constantly to the forefront in order that they might profit personally.

Legitimate business would be the loser, as it always is, in such agitations. As to the moral phase, of the issue, there is no argument at all in favor of the adoption of the amendment.

If the amendment proposed by the liberal forces has the far-reaching effect for destruction of the present laws pertaining to the regulation, control and "prohibition" of the retail liquor traffic, which the dry forces contend it has, and in which contention they are supported by eminent legal authority, so much stronger is the reason for voting it down.

REPORT SHOWS OVERWHEMING VOTE FAVORING PROHIBITION

Columbus, O., October 31.—Concensus of newspaper judgment, throughout Ohio, shows that the sentiment is very general in favor of state-wide prohibition and that the amendment will carry by a safe majority on election day. A poll taken of all the representative counties where there are daily newspapers, shows an overwhelming proportion giving their judgment that the several counties will return majorities favoring state-wide prohibition.
Following is an abstract of a partial list of telegrams received from editors in the past 24 hours:
Coshocton—Dry amendment will carry county by 300.
Delaware—On most conservative estimate, Delaware will give at least 1500 majority for prohibition.
Painesville—Prohibition will carry in this county.
Salem—Columbiana county will defeat Home Rule an approve probi-bition.
Lancaster—Fairfield 800 dry.
Cambridge—Guernsey will go 2500 to 3000 for prohibition.
Bowling Green—Wood county 2,- 200 for prohibition.
Marletta—With fair weather, dry
by 1500.
Washington C. H.—Fayette will cast 2,000 majority for prohibition.
Celina—Home rule, yes 2300; no,
2700; prohibition, yes 2600; No.
2400.
Kenton—Prohibition will carry nearly 2,000.

Athens—Conservative estimate 1,- 500 dry.
Youngstown—Mahoning will go 500 to 1000 dry.
Lorain county will cast majority vote against home rule.
Circleville—Prohibition will carry
by 500.
Shelby—Richland dry by 450.
Newark—County dry by 1000.
Upper Sandusky—Estimate Wyandotte county dry 2900, wet 2600.
Piqua—Miami will be for probi-bition by 1000.
Mt. Vernon—Knox county will probably give prohibition from 1200 to 2,000 majority.
Zanesville—Prohibition will carry Muskingum county by 1000.
Gallipolis—Gallia dry 1200.
Ashtabula—With total vote of 12,-

TRIO OF LOCAL COLORED MEN ARE HELD IN CHILLICOTHE

Three Men, Giving Names of Lee and Hershel Brandon and Walter Baker, Charged With Burglary and Malicious Destruction of Property
—Are Said to Have Smashed
Windows and Carried Off Whiskey —Were Chased 15 Miles by Automobile.

Three colored men, giving their names as Lee and Hershel Brandon and Walter Baker, of this city, have been arrested in Chillicothe on charges of burglary and the malicious destruction of property.

A full account of the trouble in which the trio find themselves, is given by the Chillicothe News as follows:

"After a 12-mile chase three negroes suspected of the robbery of Charles Coppel's saloon on South Paint street Thursday evening were captured at Austin by Patrolmen William Williams and Charles Fox of the Chillicothe police department.
Whisky of the same brand as that stolen was found on the negroes The Coppel saloon is situated on South Paint street near the C. H. & D. statio. It was closed at 10:30 o'clock and at 12:55 o'clock Patrolman Williams discovered that his front window had been broken and some whisky on display had been removed. A brick was lying in the gutter nearby and it is thought the window was broken with this.

"Williams immediately reported the robbery to headquarters and notified William Coppel, a son of the proprietor of the saloon. Williams and Fox then made a search of the C. H. & D. yards. Fox and Coppel suddenly heard a crackling in the weeds at the outskirts of the yards and saw two men running towards Paint creek. They fired three times to stop the men but they kept on and soon disappeared.

"A west-bound freight train passed through the yards shortly after this and thinking the fugitives might have returned and caught the freight train, they had an operator at R-K tower, west of the city called.

"The operator replied that the train was just passing and that two negroes were riding it. Fox and Williams, immediately gave chase, Coppel driving the automobile. At Austin, they saw two negroes sitting along the C. H. & D. tracks. This was at about 5 o'clock this morning.

"The negroes seeing the automobile approach started to run, but Williams and Fox gave chase and caught them. The negroes offered no resistance. Each of them had a quart of whisky of the same brand taken from the window. They gave their names as Lee and Hershel Brandon, cousins of Washington C. H.

"They were brought to this city and placed in the city prison. After the return, Patrolman Williams arrested Walter Baker, colored, of Washington C. H. in the C. H. & D. yards. Baker had a quart of whiskey on him. It was also of the missing brand. Five or six bottle of whisky were taken from the window.

"Baker and the Brandons were together in this city on Thursday. A fourth negro with them is still at large. All three pleaded not guilty to charges of larceny and malicious destruction of property and were held on $200 bond for hearings on Monday and Wednesday.

"The Brandons claim that they sent Baker to buy the whiskey that was found on them and the latter claimed he bought it in Coppel's saloon at 8:25 o'clock Thursday evening. A chewing gum machine was also taken from the C. H. & D. station and found broken open in the yards."

REPORT SHOWS OVERWHEMING VOTE FAVORING PROHIBITION

Columbus, O., October 31.—Consensus of newspaper judgment, throughout Ohio, shows that the sentiment is very general in favor of state-wide prohibition and that the amendment will carry by a safe majority on election day. A poll taken of all the representative counties where there are daily newspapers, shows an overwhelming proportion giving their judgment that the several counties will return majorities favoring state-wide prohibition.

Following is an abstract of a partial list of telegrams received from editors in the past 24 hours:

Coshocton—Dry amendment will carry county by 300.

Delaware—On most conservative estimate, Delaware will give at least 1500 majority for prohibition.

Painesville—Prohibition will carry in this county.

Salem—Columbiana county will defeat Home Rule and approve prohibition.

Lancaster—Fairfield 800 dry.

Cambridge—Guernsey will go 2500 to 3000 for prohibition.

Bowling Green—Wood county 2,200 for prohibition.

Marietta—With fair weather, dry by 1500.

Washington C. H.—Fayette will cast 2,000 majority for prohibition.

Celina—Home rule, yes 2300; no, 2700; prohibition, yes 2600; No, 2400.

Kenton—Prohibition will carry nearly 2,000.

Athens—Conservative estimate 1,500 dry.

Youngstown—Mahoning will go 500 to 1000 dry.

Lorain county will cast majority vote against home rule.

Circleville—Prohibition will carry by 500.

Shelby—Richland dry by 450.

Newark—County dry by 1000.

Upper Sandusky—Estimate Wyandotte county dry 2900, wet 2600.

Piqua—Miami will be for prohibition by 1000.

Mt. Vernon—Knox county will probably give prohibition from 1200 to 2,000 majority.

Zanesville—Prohibition will carry Muskingum county by 1000.

Gallipolis—Gallia dry 1200.

Ashtabula—With total vote of 12,000, this county will give about 3,000 dry majority.

Urbana—Prohibition will carry from 2300 to 2500.

Xenia—Prohibition majority, 1500.

Steubenville—Jefferson will give dry majority of 2500.

East Liverpool—Columbiana will give 2,000 dry majority.

Bellefontaine—2500 dry majority very conservative, may be 3,000.

Chillicothe—Ross county outside of city, 1500 dry.

Chillicothe—500 wet, net dry majority in county 1000.

Ironton—Lawrence county will give state-wide prohibition not less than 1200 majority.

Only five newspapers reported probable wet majorities and all these were small.

In Social Circles

The Halloween season is affording opportunity for a round of gaiety among the young people and the peculiar attractions of the "witches' night" have been put to the test in all manner of parties.

The big Y. M. C. A. masquerade of tonight is drawing so largely from all sets that individual parties were largely held Friday night.

Mrs. Scott Hopkins entertained half a dozen girls, in compliment to her niece, Miss Gretchen Willis, with the merriest of Halloween slumber parties Friday night.

After a delicious supper the girls engaged in all kinds of Halloween games.

The guests were Misses Gretchen Willis, Edith Worthington, Ruth Reid, Kathleen Davis, Dorothy Rogers, Gladys Fenner.

A pretty compliment was paid to Mrs. Clifford Potter Friday afternoon in a recherche "Bridge" of four tables given by Mrs. C. Graham Beckel and Miss Charlotte Dahl.

Chrysanthemums beautified Mrs. Beckel's attractive home and charming appointment characterized the affair.

Mrs. Beckel received in a graceful gown of white chiffon over charmeuse. Miss Dahl was wearing a smart gown of black taffeta with ruffled skirt.

Mrs. Potter's exquisite blonde type was strikingly set off by her gown of taupe chiffon over coral charmeuse, the long tunic and bodice trimmed with fur, big hat of black velvet, with Paradise feathers.

The favors of the game, immense yellow chrysanthemums, were presented to Mrs. Potter and Miss Lavin Cockerill.

The guests were chiefly confined to the young women of the Thursday Bridge club.

Mrs. Lucian Wells, Salem, Va., was an out of town guest.

An extremely jolly and out of the usual affair was a progressive Halloween party, given by five young girls, Helen Baker, Doris Willis, Jocelyn Bowen, Ruth Grafton and Aileen Hess.

Each girl in turn gave a Halloween spread, the prevailing decorations all Halloween, and the tour from house to house was a leading feature of the fun.

Their guests were Richard Willis, Renick Allen, Richard Haynes, Malcolm Nelson, Willis Willis.

Miss Grace McCoy and brother, Ray, entertained forty young people at a delightful Halloween masquerade at their home on Circle avenue, Friday night.

The home with fantastic Halloween decorations, the ghostly light, pumpkin lanterns and myriad black cats, provided just the proper setting for the masqueraders, in motley array of costumes.

A hilarious evening of fun was brought to the close by the serving of an appetizing Halloween lunch.

Miss Faye Williams and Morris Williams were sponsors for a very jolly affair of Friday night. Twenty couples of young people enjoyed a ride in the Baker motor bus to Sabina and Halloween supper in that city. The homeward ride was enlivened with songs and everybody had a royal good time.

Mrs. C. U. Armstrong charmingly entertained the Thursday Kensington club.

Mrs. Sherman Murray was an out-of-town guest.

The Friday Auction Bridge club was indebted to Mrs. D. H. Barchet for hospitable entertainment.

Mrs. Howard McLean was hostess at the meeting of the Friday Afternoon Bridge club.

The club members found the afternoon thoroughly pleasurable and expressed their unstinted admiration over Mrs. McLean's pretty new bungalow, thrown open socially for the first time. Yellow chrysanthemums added effective decoration to the rooms.

Mrs. John Durant assisted the hostess in the serving of a dainty refecton.

the guest of her cousins, Mrs. Louise Potter and Miss Janet Stutson for the past three weeks, left Saturday for her home in Chicago.

Hugh Kennedy, who is taking the horticultural course at the O. S. U. is down from Columbus, spending Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Kennedy.

Hon. Humphrey Jones left Saturday night for Indiana, on a short visit to his farms on the Wabash.

Mrs. Ola Boyer and daughter, Lucile, are spending the day in Columbus.

In Social Circles

The Halloween season is affording opportunity for a round of gaiety among the young people and the peculiar attractions of the "witches' night" have been put to the test in all manner of parties.

The big Y. M. C. A. masquerade of tonight is drawing so largely from all sets that individual parties were largely held Friday night.

Mrs. Scott Hopkins entertained half a dozen girls, in compliment to her niece, Miss Gretchen Willis, with the merriest of Halloween slumber parties Friday night.

After a delicious supper the girls engaged in all kinds of Halloween games.

The guests were Misses Gretchen Willis, Edith Worthington, Ruth Reid, Kathleen Davis, Dorothy Rogers, Gladys Fenner.

A pretty compliment was paid to Mrs. Clifford Potter Friday afternoon in a recherche "Bridge" of four tables given by Mrs. C. Graham Beckel and Miss Charlotte Dahl.

Chrysanthemums beautified Mrs. Beckel's attractive home and charming appointment characterized the affair.

Mrs. Beckel received in a graceful gown of white chiffon over charmeuse. Miss Dahl was wearing a smart gown of black taffeta with ruffled skirt.

Mrs. Potter's exquisite blonde type was strikingly set off by her gown of taupe chiffon over coral charmeuse, the long tunic and bodice trimmed with fur, big hat of black velvet, with Paradise feathers.

The favors of the game, immense yellow chrysanthemums, were presented to Mrs. Potter and Miss Lavon Cockerill.

The guests were chiefly confined to the young women of the Thursday Bridge club.

Mrs. Lucian Wells, Salem, Va., was an out of town guest.

An extremely jolly and out of the usual affair was a progressive Halloween party, given by five young girls, Helen Baker, Doris Willis, Jocelyn Bowen, Ruth Grafton and Aileen Hess.

Each girl in turn gave a Halloween spread, the prevailing decorations all Halloween, and the tour from house to house was a leading feature of the fun.

Their guests were Richard Willis, Renick Allen, Richard Haynes, Malcolm Nelson, Willis Willis.

Miss Grace McCoy and brother, Ray, entertained forty young people at a delightful Halloween masquerade at their home on Circle avenue, Friday night.

The home with fantastic Halloween decorations, the ghostly light, pumpkin lanterns and myriad black cats, provided just the proper setting for the masqueraders, in motley array of costumes.

A hilarious evening of fun was brought to the close by the serving of an appetizing Halloween lunch.

Miss Faye Williams and Morris Williams were sponsors for a very jolly affair of Friday night. Twenty couples of young people enjoyed a ride in the Baker motor bus to Sabina and Halloween supper in that city. The homeward ride was enlivened with songs and everybody had a royal good time.

Mrs. C. U. Armstrong charmingly entertained the Thursday Kensington club.

Mrs. Sherman Murray was an out-of-town guest.

The Friday Auction Bridge club was indebted to Mrs. D. H. Barchet for hospitable entertainment.

Mrs. Howard McLean was hostess at the meeting of the Friday Afternoon Bridge club.

The club members found the afternoon thoroughly pleasurable and expressed their unstinted admiration over Mrs. McLean's pretty new bungalow, thrown open socially for the first time. Yellow chrysanthemums added effective decoration to the rooms.

Mrs. John Durant assisted the hostess in the serving of a dainty refecton.

the guest of her cousins, Mrs. Louise Potter and Miss Janet Stutson for the past three weeks, left Saturday for her home in Chicago.

Hugh Kennedy, who is taking the horticultural course at the O. S. U. is down from Columbus, spending Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Kennedy.

Hon. Humphrey Jones left Saturday night for Indiana, on a short visit to his farm on the Wabash.

Mrs. Ola Boyer and daughter, Lucille, are spending the day in Columbus.

Mrs. Eva J. Penn, past worthy grand matron of the state of Ohio, O. E. S., was honored at the annual session of the Grand chapter held in Toledo this week, by being appointed chairman of the committee on Red Cross Relief Funds, and also made a member of the Masonic hospital committee.

Severe Fighting Continues With Little Intermission.

BOTH SIDES CLAIM SUCCESSES

Allies Gaining Ground, According to English Reports, While Berlin Says German Attacks Are Bearing Fruit. East Indian Troops Aiding Japanese at Tsingtau—Progress of the Fighting in Belgium and France.

London, Oct. 31.—The official press bureau issued the following statement of conditions in Belgium and France: "Severe fighting continues with little intermission along the allies' line, especially toward the north. The German resistance is stubborn and fierce counter attacks are made by them frequently. Nevertheless, the allies are steadily gaining ground. In a counter attack one brigade delivered a brilliant bayonet charge, accounting for many of the enemy, whose losses throughout the fighting are heavy."

An official statement issued by the German army general headquarters says: "Our attacks to the south of Neuport and to the east of Ypres are being successfully continued. Eight machine guns and 200 British soldiers have been captured. In the Argonne forest our troops have occupied several blockhouses and points of support. To the northwest of Verdun the French attacked without success."

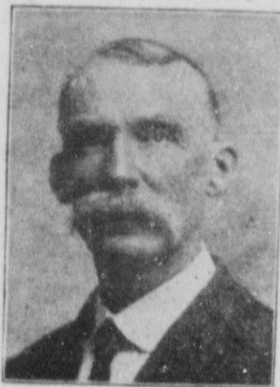

The following communication was issued in Paris: "In Belgium, according to the latest advices, there is nothing to report in the region of Neuport or Dixmude. On our left wing the enemy has directed violent attacks against the front of the British troops on the two banks of the La Bassee canal without obtaining any success. There has been a recrudescence of activity in the region of Rheims and along the heights of the Meuse, at the south of Fresnes en Woevre."

The London press bureau announced that an Indian contingent has joined the British and Japanese forces operating against the Germans before Tsingtau, China.

London, Oct. 31.—The following dispatch from Berlin was received here by the Marconi Wireless Telegraph company:

"Dunkirk is preparing for a state of siege. In the event of a German advance the whole neighborhood will be flooded. Panic exists in the town of Dunkirk, upon which several German aviators have dropped bombs."

"The rebellion in South Africa has increased. General De Wet is at the head of the insurrection in the Orange Free State and General Beyers in the western Transvaal. The Boers have imprisoned many Englishmen."

"The inhabitants of London are leaving the capital for Scotland through fear of German airships."

"The banks in Cairo, Egypt, have suspended business. The Anglo-French fleet has been recalled from the Dardanelles."

"Vienna official advices say there have been no new developments in Galicia, where both armies are well entrenched. Several Russian batteries have been destroyed by the heavy Austrian guns. In Serbia several successes have been obtained."

TEDDY SPEAKS CONCERNING WAR

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 31.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt told the students at Princeton in an address that he had seen the plans of two empires involved in the European war to capture great American seaports and hold them for ransom. He added: "I hope the time will come when this country will provide that every man may have to practice in marksmanship and some military training. I have seen deliberate plans prepared to take both San Francisco and New York and hold them for ransoms that would cripple our country and give funds to the enemy for carrying on war."

TURKS TO ATTACK BRITISH IN EGYPT

BULGARIA HOLDS FATE OF BALKANS

Cavalry Divisions Approaching Gulf of Akabah.

WILL MEET STERN RESISTANCE

Ottoman Empire Not Only at War With Russia, but Has Hurlled Defiance at the Triple Entente—Movement of Troops Follows Assault on Russian Seaports—German Officers Command Turkish Warships.

London, Oct. 31.—Turkey is not merely at war with Russia. She has flagrantly thrown the gauntlet to the triple entente. Her warships within twenty-four hours have attacked the cities of Odessa, Theodosia and Novorossysk, have sunk the Russian cruiser Donets, have shelled the French steamer Portugal and have destroyed or damaged five Russian merchant vessels.

Simultaneously she has put her troops in motion, evidently launching an attack against the British in Egypt. A dispatch from Cairo states that Turkish cavalry divisions are approaching the Gulf of Akabah, the most easterly projection of the Red sea, and that the British and native forces in Egypt are prepared for an attack.

The Ottoman empire, casting her lot with Germany, went to war without warning. The bombardment of Theodosia and the threat at Novorossysk was quickly followed by another raid into the harbor of Odessa and the attacks by the German cruisers Goeben and Breslau upon Russian shipping in the Black sea. There are credible reports that the Turkish warships are commanded by German officers and that navy and army are in control of the German government. It is officially reported by the Russian government that two Turkish destroyers ran into the harbor of Odessa and opened fire on the city and shipping. It is probable that the authorities at Odessa were not aware that a state of war existed and that Turkish ships had already attacked elsewhere in the Black sea.

The Russian gunboat Donets of 1,224 tons was hit by a torpedo and went to the bottom. The destroyers, turning their guns on the merchant vessels, damaged the Portugal, which flew the French flag, and hit three Russian steamers, the Lazareff, Witiaz and Whampoa. The destroyers also threw shells into the city, killing or injuring citizens and damaging a sugar factory. Apparently an attempt was made to ruin oil storage tanks, which were in full range of the guns, but these were not injured.

Merchantmen Sunk.
Simultaneously the big battle cruiser Goeben, sold or loaned to Turkey by Germany, and still manned, according to report, by German officers and seamen, went into action against Russian merchant ships operating between the Sea of Azov and the Black sea. A dispatch from Petrograd states that the Goeben intercepted and torpedoed the steamships Yalta and Kazbek, and that seventy-three sailors and passengers of the Kazbek perished. This raid was first heard of in Kertsch, a Crimean port.

A dispatch from Rome states that the Goeben and Breslau have probably destroyed other vessels, since they have been active since Thursday morning in lanes where Russian vessels are common. The Breslau was off Theodosia, on the Caucasus seaboard, on Thursday morning. It is entirely probable that a bombardment of seacoast towns has been commenced.

Russia's action was immediate. The czar's government proclaimed a state of war against Turkey and the Russian ambassador and suite left Constantinople after the protection of Russian citizens and interests in Turkey had been placed in the hands of the Italian ambassador. The minister of marine at Petrograd sent instructions to the commander of the Black sea fleet to search out and engage the Turkish fleet. Russian consuls in Turkey have been withdrawn. A dispatch from Vienna says that Russia has already attempted to invade Turkish territory in Europe, but that the attempts have been unsuccessful.

Greece, Rumania and Others May Be Forced Into the War.

Washington, Oct. 31.—The action of Turkey in beginning hostilities against Russia is regarded here as one of the most important developments thus far in the European war, opening the door to possibilities of a stupendous character. The most vital importance is now attached to the attitude of Bulgaria. Should Bulgaria join with Turkey there is no question the Greece would make war on both, and Roumania, it is believed, would be drawn into active sympathy with Russia. Should Bulgaria remain neutral, it is thought probable that Greece and Roumania would remain out of the struggle and that there would be no real disturbance in the Balkans.

Russia on the Black sea and in Persia and Great Britain in Egypt will be the chief objectives of the Turks. It is believed here, if the conflagration is not also started in the Balkans. The great majority of the Turkish forces are of course in Asia Minor, where attacks upon Russia and on Egypt would naturally be made so far as land warfare is concerned.

FINAL ARGUMENT IN RATE CASE

Washington, Oct. 31.—The final argument in the reopened advanced rate case has been submitted to the interstate commerce commission, and the commission has now before it for settlement the question whether the railroads in official classification territory shall be allowed to increase their freight rates 5 per cent.

The closing argument for the carriers was made by George S. Patterson of the Pennsylvania railroad. He said that as a matter of fact the carriers now petitioning for the increase of 5 per cent need $100,000,000 additional rather than $50,000,000, to meet decreasing net income, to make necessary improvements and sustain their credits.

RICH MAN HELD ON SERIOUS CHARGE

New York, Oct. 31.—Julius Hellner, president of a corset company, was arrested here on an extradition warrant from Chicago, charging him with violating the Mann white slave act. Hellner is accused of inducing Florence Giddens, a seventeen-year-old girl of Chicago, to accompany him from that city to St. Louis. Hellner is married and has one child. The charge against him was made by the mother of Florence Giddens, whose testimony before the federal grand jury at Chicago was mainly responsible for Hellner's indictment there. It was learned that the defense would be based on the counter charge that young Hellner was the victim of a blackmail conspiracy in which a man and a woman were implicated.

HOW THE SUGAR GOES.

Pathetic Wail of a New York Restaurant Proprietor.

"I love my patrons," said a well known restaurant proprietor, "but friendship and platonic affection cease when they begin to take all the sugar I have. The other day I took an inventory of the stock of this establishment, and I found that my patrons were using fifteen and eighteen lumps of sugar to every cup of coffee or tea that was consumed. I knew that could not be true, and I put a watch on my help, thinking that some one was stealing the sugar. I saw none of my help go near the barrel, while the sugar continued to go at the same rate.

"So I watched my customers. Many of them never used sugar in their coffee or tea before this war, and now they dig into the bowl and take out a large handful of the lumps. Do you think they put any of it into their coffee or tea? No; they put the lumps into their pockets and take them home.

"The war and the high cost of living are responsible. People taking their lunches downtown feel that they cannot afford to buy sugar for the family, so they let the restaurant man furnish it. What am I going to do? If I catch them and tell them to put it back they do not come here for their lunches any more, and if I let them keep on taking it I will be broke soon."—New York Telegraph.

Just Wanted a Peep.

Representative Ashbrook of Ohio has a mania for collecting rare coins. He maintains an index showing the location of practically every rare coin in the country and full information concerning it, a good deal as the Bertillon records of criminals are kept by the police. Ashbrook remarked one day that he wished congress would adjourn so that he could go to a point in Tennessee.

"There's a man there with an 1804 dollar," he explained.

"Couldn't you buy it by mail?" he was asked.

"I don't want to buy it," said Ashbrook. "I've got one. I just want to look at it."—New York Sun.

Pumpkin Pie.

"Should a pumpkin pie be more than an inch thick?" demands the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. Well, well! And in this particularly Providence blessed corner of the earth we never speak of "thickness" in connection with the joy producing padding of a pumpkin pie. Up here it is referred to as "depth," the preference being given to the kind that is too deep to be sounded and too luscious to be fathomed.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

WORKED BOTH WAYS.

A Ruse That Attracted as Well as Diverted Attention.

One morning Mrs. Wilmington's attention was attracted by a strange spectacle coming up the street. At that distance she could not quite make it out. It appeared to be some sort of animal with a headlight fastened to its forehead. As it came nearer it resolved itself into the shape of a human being—perhaps some sleek with a red fez. But in another moment Mrs. Wilmington recognized Martha Maria So-phrina Smith, the seventeen-year-old colored girl who came every Monday for the laundry.

Martha Maria had a flaming red ribbon four inches wide round her head.

First Thanksgiving.

The first Thanksgiving was conducted by an English minister named Wotfall in 1578, on the shores of Newfoundland. The first celebration in the present territory of the United States was held in the Popham colony at Sagadahoc, on the coast of Maine, in 1607. The first regular appointment of a Thanksgiving day was by Governor Bradford, the first governor of Massachusetts bay.

TURKS TO ATTACK BRITISH IN EGYPT

Cavalry Divisions Approaching Gulf of Akabah.

WILL MEET STERN RESISTANCE

Ottoman Empire Not Only at War With Russia, but Has Hurdled Defiance at the Triple Entente—Movement of Troops Follows Assault on Russian Seaports—German Officers Command Turkish Warships.

London, Oct. 31.—Turkey is not merely at war with Russia. She has flagrantly thrown the gauntlet to the triple entente. Her warships within twenty-four hours have attacked the cities of Odessa, Theodosia and Novorossysk, have sunk the Russian cruiser Donets, have shelled the French steamer Portugal and have destroyed or damaged five Russian merchant vessels.

Simultaneously she has put her troops in motion, evidently launching an attack against the British in Egypt. A dispatch from Cairo states that Turkish cavalry divisions are approaching the Gulf of Akabah, the most easterly projection of the Red sea, and that the British and native forces in Egypt are prepared for an attack.

The Ottoman empire, casting her lot with Germany, went to war without warning. The bombardment of Theodosia and the threat at Novorossysk was quickly followed by another raid into the harbor of Odessa and the attacks by the German cruisers Goeben and Breslau upon Russian shipping in the Black sea. There are credible reports that the Turkish warships are commanded by German officers and that navy and army are in control of the German government. It is officially reported by the Russian government that two Turkish destroyers ran into the harbor of Odessa and opened fire on the city and shipping. It is probable that the authorities at Odessa were not aware that a state of war existed and that Turkish ships had already attacked elsewhere in the Black sea.

The Russian gunboat Donets of 1,224 tons was hit by a torpedo and went to the bottom. The destroyers, turning their guns on the merchant vessels, damaged the Portugal, which flew the French flag, and hit three Russian steamers, the Lazareff, Wladiaz and Whampoa. The destroyers also threw shells into the city, killing or injuring citizens and damaging a sugar factory. Apparently an attempt was made to ruin oil storage tanks, which were in full range of the guns, but these were not injured.

Merchantmen Sunk.

er Goeben, sold or loaned to Turkey by Germany, and still manned, according to report, by German officers and seamen, went into action against Russian merchant ships operating between the Sea of Azov and the Black sea. A dispatch from Petrograd states that the Goeben intercepted and torpedoed the steamships Yalta and Kazbek, and that seventy-three sailors and passengers of the Kazbek perished. This raid was first heard of in Kertsch, a Crimean port.

A dispatch from Rome states that the Goeben and Breslau have probably destroyed other vessels, since they have been active since Thursday morning in lanes where Russian vessels are common. The Breslau was off Theodosia, on the Caucasus seaboard, on Thursday morning. It is entirely probable that a bombardment of seacoast towns has been commenced.

Russia's action was immediate. The czar's government proclaimed a state of war against Turkey and the Russian ambassador and suite left Constantinople after the protection of Russian citizens and interests in Turkey had been placed in the hands of the Italian ambassador. The minister of marine at Petrograd sent instructions to the commander of the Black sea fleet to search out and engage the Turkish fleet. Russian consuls in Turkey have been withdrawn. A dispatch from Vienna says that Russia has already attempted to invade Turkish territory in Europe, but that the attempts have been unsuccessful.

SHIPS HELD BY BRITISH

Washington, Oct. 31.—Action to secure the release of the American steamer Kronland, detained by British authorities at Gibraltar, will be taken soon by the state department. The Kronland has on board 1,400 tons of copper for Italy and Greece. Similar steps may also be taken with reference to two Italian ships, the San Giovanni and Regia d'Italia, also carrying American copper, which have been detained at Gibraltar by the British. The state department has received from the shippers and the owners interested in the Kronland and her cargo assurances that the copper she carries has genuinely neutral destinations in Italy and Greece. The British government will be informed then that unless it has evidence proving a hostile destination for the copper on the Kronland, the United States government will expect the prompt release of the vessel and her cargo.

BELGIAN ENVOY GIVEN HIS PAPERS

BULGARIA HOLDS FATE OF BALKANS

Greece, Rumania and Others May Be Forced Into the War.

Washington, Oct. 31.—The action of Turkey in beginning hostilities against Russia is regarded here as one of the most important developments thus far in the European war, opening the door to possibilities of a stupendous character. The most vital importance is now attached to the attitude of Bulgaria. Should Bulgaria join with Turkey there is no question that Greece would make war on both, and Rumania, it is believed, would be drawn into active sympathy with Russia. Should Bulgaria remain neutral, it is thought probable that Greece and Rumania would remain out of the struggle and that there would be no real disturbance in the Balkans.

Russia on the Black sea and in Persia and Great Britain in Egypt will be the chief objectives of the Turks. It is believed here, if the conflagration is not also started in the Balkans. The great majority of the Turkish forces are of course in Asia Minor, where attacks upon Russia and on Egypt would naturally be made so far as land warfare is concerned.

FINAL ARGUMENT IN RATE CASE

Washington, Oct. 31.—The final argument in the reopened advanced rate case has been submitted to the interstate commerce commission, and the commission has now before it for settlement the question whether the railroads in official classification territory shall be allowed to increase their freight rates 5 per cent.

The closing argument for the carriers was made by George S. Patterson of the Pennsylvania railroad. He said that as a matter of fact the carriers now petitioning for the increase of 5 per cent need $100,000,000 additional rather than $50,000,000, to meet decreasing net income, to make necessary improvements and sustain their credits.

RICH MAN HELD ON SERIOUS CHARGE

New York, Oct. 31.—Julius Hellner, president of a corset company, was arrested here on an extradition warrant from Chicago, charging him with violating the Mann white slave act. Hellner is accused of inducing Florence Giddens, a seventeen-year-old girl of Chicago, to accompany him from that city to St. Louis. Hellner is married and has one child. The charge against him was made by the mother of Florence Giddens, whose testimony before the federal grand jury at Chicago was mainly responsible for Hellner's indictment there. It was learned that the defense would be based on the counter charge that young Hellner was the victim of a blackmail conspiracy in which a man and a woman were implicated.

"Why, Martha," exclaimed Mrs. Wilmington, as the girl came round the porch, "what in the world are you wearing that bow for?"

CARRANZA PLAN NOT IN FAVOR

Delegates Fancy the Confiscation Scheme of Zapata.

PEACE MEETING TO ADOPT IT

Any Action Looking to the Removal of General Carranza Would Result in Hostilities—Both Sides Making Preparations For Warfare—Latest Developments in the Mexican Situation.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 31.—Though the expulsion of General Carranza and the selection of his successor are of great interest to the national convention at Aguascalientes in a purely political sense, the solution of the agrarian problem is now receiving the undivided attention of that body, according to dispatches from Aguascalientes.

General Zapata's plan is about to be adopted in full in preference to the plan of Guadalupe. Zapata's plan is broader in scope. It provides for the immediate confiscation and distribution of lands held by the old federal element, irrespective of title. The Guadalupe plan provides for the confiscation of only such lands as are not held by good title. The Carranza delegates are standing firmly by the Guadalupe plan.

Plans for warfare in the event the convention is finally disrupted are being made by both sides. The brush between Carranza and Villa troops forty miles east of Aguascalientes, in which about 200 were killed on both sides, was denounced in the convention and the responsible officers were ordered under arrest. They will be court-martialed and shot, dispatches state.

Carranza forces at Leon, south of Aguascalientes, have been increased from 10,000 to 15,000 men under command of General Pablo Gonzales, whom Carranza has not permitted to enter the convention, preferring to have him in command of the troops in case a sudden attack upon General Villa's army is necessary. General Candido Aguilar, with an army of 5,000, is being held to watch General Funston's army at Vera Cruz, while General Carrera Torres is in command of the troops at the federal capital. General Villa has about 18,000 men to the north of the convention city, sundry other thousands in Torreón and the northern garrisons, and immense stores of munitions of war.

Since no move has been made in the convention to comply with the demand of Carranza that Villa and Zapata be relieved of their commands if he resigns, there is apparently every reason to believe that any action to remove Carranza will result in immediate hostilities.

Reports of chaos in Mexico City were brought to the border by passengers arriving from the south, who reported that officers of the Constitutional army a few days ago confiscated blooded horses in the stables of the Brazilian ambassador and of the minister from Argentina, both of whom made immediate energetic protests to General Carranza.

KRUPP GUN WORKS

Daughter of Founder and View in Immense Factory.

This is a view of the great Krupp gun factory and its owner, Frau Gustav von Bohlen und Halbach, who was formerly Miss Bertha Krupp, daughter of the founder. The largest guns ever manufactured are being made in this plant for the German army. It employs usually about 70,000 men, but the force has been doubled since the outbreak of the war.

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT FINED FOR CONTEMPT

Cleveland, Oct. 31.—Judge W. H. Neff of common pleas court sentenced Superintendent J. H. M. Frederick of the Cleveland public schools to serve ten days in jail and pay a fine of $500 for contempt of court. Superintendent Frederick was found guilty of violating the court's order, which reappointed teachers because of their activities in the teachers' union. Frederick will appeal.

MORE HIGHWAY CONTRACTS LET

Columbus, Oct. 31.—With the letting of contracts for the construction of 32.4 miles of improved roads in fifteen counties, at a total cost of $468,941.15, the state highway department brought its total contracts for the year to the sum of $7,057,575.47. Other contracts yet to be awarded before the close of the year probably will bring the total close to $7,250,000.

GOVERNOR GLYNN REMOVES M'CORMICK

New York, Oct. 31.—Acting on advice from Governor Glynn, Superintendent of Prisons John B. Riley removed Thomas J. McCormick as warden of Sing Sing prison. The governor sent a letter to Superintendent Riley after reading the report submitted by Stephen N. Baldwin, who completed his preliminary investigation of Sing Sing. "Upon the admission of McCormick himself," the report says, "it is apparent that he has displayed a reckless disregard of that caution which should be observed by a man to whom the imprisonment and detention of a convicted prisoner has been committed."

The Scalp and the Hair.
The hair is provided with oil by the sebaceous glands that lie at its roots. Regular and vigorous brushing of the hair increases the flow of oil and keeps the hair glossy. The hair is fed by the blood vessels that enter the inner layer of skin in which the hair root is embedded. A good nervous system which promotes a good circulation is one of the essentials in producing a healthy growth of hair. It is as necessary for the scalp to be kept clean as for the surface of any other portion of the skin to be kept clean. The hair should be thoroughly brushed to remove dust. It should be left loose and free at night to allow the moisture to evaporate and to permit air to pass through it freely. The scalp should be thoroughly rubbed at least once a week. This promotes a good circulation and thus gives the hair a vigorous growth. The hair should be washed at least once a month. Soft water, mild soap and thorough rinsing in clear water are essential to successful washing.

BARBED WIRE IN WAR.

It Makes a Terrible Trap if the Enemy Gets Entangled in It.

The liberal use of barbed wire by a force of defenders has often turned what would otherwise have been a victorious assault upon a fortified position into ignominious defeat. Every one recalls the way barbed wire was used around Santiago during the Spanish-American war and also in the Russo-Japanese war.

The usual method is to stretch thousands of yards of wire, thickly "barbed," in front of an enemy. Irregular fences are formed, only a few feet apart. Trees, stumps and everything that can be used as a post is made to serve, and the more tangled the wire the more effective it becomes. The terrible effect upon a force that becomes entangled in such a snare is appalling. Horses are torn to pieces, men are cut and bruised, while the wire serves to hold them in range of deadly guns. Nothing is more demoralizing upon the troops, which find it practically impossible to advance or retreat.

Barbed wire is placed by a regular corps of men who have special equipment for the work, and coils of wire are a part of every army's equipment.

CARRANZA PLAN NOT IN FAVOR

Delegates Fancy the Confiscation Scheme of Zapata.

PEACE MEETING TO ADOPT IT

Any Action Looking to the Removal of General Carranza Would Result in Hostilities—Both Sides Making Preparations For Warfare—Latest Developments in the Mexican Situation.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 31.—Though the expulsion of General Carranza and the selection of his successor are of great interest to the national convention at Aguascalientes in a purely political sense, the solution of the agrarian problem is now receiving the undivided attention of that body, according to dispatches from Aguascalientes.

General Zapata's plan is about to be adopted in full in preference to the plan of Guadalupe, Zapata's plan is broader in scope. It provides for the immediate confiscation and distribution of lands held by the old federal element, irrespective of title. The Guadalupe plan provides for the confiscation of only such lands as are not held by good title. The Carranza delegates are standing firmly by the Guadalupe plan.

Plans for warfare in the event the convention is finally disrupted are being made by both sides. The brush between Carranza and Villa troops forty miles east of Aguascalientes, in which about 200 were killed on both sides, was denounced in the convention and the responsible officers were ordered under arrest. They will be court-martialed and shot, dispatches state.

Carranza forces at Leon, south of Aguascalientes, have been increased from 10,000 to 15,000 men under command of General Pablo Gonzales, whom Carranza has not permitted to enter the convention, preferring to have him in command of the troops in case a sudden attack upon General Villa's army is necessary. NOTED SUFFRAGE WORKERS
INVADE CITY AND COUNTY

The main streets and Court House square of our city Friday afternoon presented a kaleidoscope of brilliant color—the marching children in pretty paper caps and badges out for prohibition, intermingled with the yellow badges of home and visiting women out for suffrage.

After the beautiful and inspiring parade was over, Mrs. Maud Wood Park of Boston, mounted the platform of the monument of Court House square and gave a spirited earnest talk for woman suffrage.

While Mrs. Park was speaking at the square, a large number of ladies had assembled at the M. E. church for the purpose of hearing an address by her—as previously announced.

At 3:45 p. m., Mrs. Dora C. Horine of Cleveland, took up the theme of suffrage on the square, relieving Mrs. Park of the strain of open-air speaking, that she might keep her appointment at the church. Mrs. Horine spoke especially of the need College Equal Suffrage league—since grown into fifty such leagues throughout the states.

Mrs. Park, after the death of her husband, went into social settlement work in Boston and afterwards made a tour of the world, lasting several years—in order to study the condition of women in all lands. These experiences give human interest and breadth to her rare culture and womanliness. She is one of the foremost speakers and organizers for suffrage in this country, and the one chosen from among the able speakers in Ohio this year to answer, Lucy Price, the well-known anti-suffragist, in debate in debate in Columbus on the evening of October 29, before the Young Men's Business league.

of women in government—drawing her argument from the services women are rendering the state wherever they vote.

At the conclusion of the church meeting, many of the ladies present remained to discuss measures for reaching, through literature and speeches, the voters of this county in the interest of the woman's amendment. They realize that time is short between now and election day and a fine program was outlined and entered upon for the intervening three days.

Miss Medford, the advance agent of this band of campaigners, Mrs. Margaret S. Vail, the pathfinder of the State association, who has arranged tours for many of their best speakers, and Miss Wing, all of Columbus—with the two ladies mentioned above—constitute the party of campaigners which has descended upon this city and county to remain until election day. They come fresh from a month's rapid tour of neighboring counties in which they have been able to round up much sentiment favorable to their cause; and they report that they, with the women of the state organization, feel confident that their amendment will carry on November 3rd.

Mrs. Park is the leader of this band of women, with headquarters at the Cherry hotel. She is the secretary of the Boston Women Suffrage Association, and member of the executive board of the Massachusetts W. S. association. A graduate of Radcliffe college with the highest honors, she with Inez Haynes Gilmore, a classmate, was the first organizer of the forceful and logical, she is feminine and conciliatory in the highest degree.

She will speak in some of the county towns today and on the public square this afternoon and evening. Tomorrow also Mrs. Park will be heard at a number of the city churches and at Staunton in the evening.

Mrs. Horine, of Cleveland, who followed Mrs. Park on the square, is one of the state organizers, having opened the present campaign in Toledo last April, organizing that city and county and other northwest counties for suffrage. She has done similar work in other states, having helped two states to win which now enjoy the franchise—California and Illinois. Her talks are therefore, along practical lines, interspersed with good anecdote and pertinent illustration.

She speaks tonight in the M. E. church of Good Hope, tomorrow forenoon in Sugar Grove and tomorrow evening in Bloomingburg.

The women of this city who are interested in this cause are active with Mrs. Vail and the other campaigners in canvassing the towns and county today.

They are trying to measure up sentiment for this progressive measure which they deem is destined to remove all political disabilities from the women of this state—to take them out of the class of "aliens, criminals, insane, paupers and idiots," and rank them with the citizen-women of ten of our more western states, all of whom vote now on equal terms with men.

JUDGING TEAM
PRAISES FAYETTE

A most interested bunch of visitors in Fayette county the past two days has been the O. S. U. judging team, down from Columbus with Prof. Kayes, of the agricultural department.

These students are practicing for the International Fat Stock Show of Chicago, at which teams from all the state universities will judge different breeds of live stock. This is the boys first visit to Fayette county and Prof. Kayes said it was an eye-opener; they had no idea Fayette county could show such live stock.

Friday morning the team judged the herd of Shorthorn cattle of C. P. West and Son. From there they went to the Horace W. Wilson farm to look at Shire draft horses.

After judging Poland Chinas at the Ed Klever farm, the party returned to the Cherry hotel to spend the night.

Saturday morning the Short Horns and Polled Angus of Howard and Roy Hagler were judged.

Saturday afternoon the team visited Spring Hill farm to judge H. K. Stewart's Duroc Jerseys and wound up their tour at Will Huffman's, judging fat steers.

JUDGING TEAM PRAISES FAYETTE

A most interested bunch of visitors in Fayette county the past two days has been the O. S. U., judging team, down from Columbus with Prof. Kayes, of the agricultural department.

These students are practicing for the International Fat Stock Show of Chicago, at which teams from all the state universities will judge different breeds of live stock. This is the boys first visit to Fayette county and Prof. Kayes said it was an eye-opener; they had no idea Fayette county could show such live stock.

Friday morning the team judged the herd of Shorthorn cattle of C. P. West and Son. From there they went to the Horace W. Wilson farm to look at Shire draft horses.

After judging Poland Chinas at the Ed Klever farm, the party returned to the Cherry hotel to spend the night.

Saturday morning the Short Horns and Polled Angus of Howard and Roy Hagler were judged.

Saturday afternoon the team visited Spring Hill farm to judge H. K. Stewart's Duroc Jerseys and wound up their tour at Will Huffman's, judging fat steers.

LOCAL PARTY OF ELKS ROYALLY ENTERTAINED

A party of local Elks, including Messrs. Jess W. Smith, district deputy of central Ohio; F. A. Chaffin, C. Howard Griffiths and H. D. Chaffin were entertained in a princely fashion at Jackson Wednesday night by the local order at that place.

The reception was the occasion of the inspection of the Jackson order by Mr. Smith.

VOTE "NO" ON WOMAN SUFFRAGE

In the name of the majority of the women of Ohio, don't take away the non-partisan, super-political power of women for the sake of thrusting every citizen into politics.

We will only double the electorate without getting better results. We protest against being divided into political parties and factions, deprived of our unified influence for good, when no better governmental results follow.

Look at the states where it has been tried!
